FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

DeHaven Wins 2009 Woman of Distinction Award
Co-owner of Millenium Staffing Services Wins Prestigious National Association of Business Women Owners (NAWBO) Award

Las Vegas, NV. - The National Association of Women Business Owners, Southern Nevada Chapter, hosted their 11th Annual Women of Distinction Awards on March 13, 2009 at the Rio All-Suite Hotel and Casino. JENNIFER DEHAVEN, of Millenium Staffing Services was honored as the 2009 Woman of Distinction in the Business Services category. DeHaven has over 16 years of staffing experience. She is the co-owner of Millenium Staffing Services, which was incorporated as a 100% woman-owned company in Nevada over seven years ago. DeHaven, along with her business partner, Donna Lattanzio, and their illustrious team, have grown the staffing company to six divisions. Millenium sends thousands of temporary employees out to work each year, and provides executive placements to the Las Vegas community and beyond.

The Women of Distinction Awards honor the community's finest business women and entrepreneurs and their remarkable success. The award recognizes winners as leaders who have mentored other women in business, along with having a significant impact in their community.

JENNIFER DEHAVEN is an accomplished entrepreneur who has earned the respect of her clients, employees and community. This award is a testament to DEHAVEN's accomplishments; we are proud to see her honored for her success and business acumen.
