Donna Lattanzio, co-founder of Millenium Staffing Services, Names Jennifer DeHaven President, and takes on role of CEO

In a dual move reflecting the company's strength and commitment to growth, its current president, Donna Lattanzio, has taken on the role of Chief Executive Officer and names co-founder and Executive Vice President, Jennifer DeHaven as President.

Donna Lattanzio, co-founder and president of Millenium Staffing since its inception in 2002, states, "This is a significant organizational change for Millenium and one that exemplifies our commitment to growth and our ever-increasing position as an industry leader in Southern Nevada." She continues, "As CEO, I look forward to focusing on client development and our long-term growth strategies. I embrace the future with the highest confidence as Jennifer DeHaven, who has been our executive vice president for nine years, moves up to take on the role of President."

Jennifer DeHaven says, "I have enjoyed my tenure as executive vice president the past nine years and look forward to my new responsibilities as President." She further states, "I am thankful to Donna and our team for their confidence in my ability to lead Millenium Staffing into the future, and I know that, with the incredibly talented team we have developed, we are poised to attain new levels of success for ourselves and for our clients."
