FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Millenium Staffing Services, a local 100% woman-owned staffing company, is proud to announce that Brian Telfer has joined their team as Director of Business Development. Brian's tenure includes Area Director for Corestaff Services in Nevada and Arizona, and Director for Weststaff in Texas. He has many years of experience in the staffing industry with a strong background in customer service, operations, and innovative employment planning. Brian also has a strong manufacturing and process development background.

As Director of Business Development, Brian will continue to bring his expertise to the Las Vegas marketplace with his valuable and visionary consultative approach. Millenium Staffing is a full-service company with eight divisions: clerical/administrative, contact centers/customer service, light industrial, skilled trades, convention & culinary services, eco-employment, payroll services and executive search.

Brian recently served on the Board for the Nevada Staffing Association (NSA) and is active with many community organizations. His energy and enthusiasm reflect the passion and commitment he has in providing all customers with the highest level of service.
